Principal's Message

In this time of uncertainty, I want to ensure that our families and community knows that Mountain View remains committed to making our school a safe and welcoming place for people of all cultures, religions, races, abilities and sexual orientations. Our diversity is what makes us beautiful and strong. Mountain View has long had a tradition of accepting, loving, and learning from students and families who come from different countries, speak different languages, have a variety of religious and spiritual beliefs. This has been an asset for our school and community, and our message is that not only is our school better for it, our city, state, and country is and will be better for it, too. Our students represent the incredible future that our diversity will bring to our world. Continue being positive. Continue loving others. Continue in hope. This is a great time to remember that our theme this year is following the golden rule. It is my privilege to work with you all. Thank you for making me feel welcome. I will always do my best to make sure everyone feels welcome and safe here at Mountain View.

Counselor Corner

Parents, please join us at Pastries with Parents on November 22nd to recognize those Mountain View students who were caught being respectful in October. Every month we learn about and practice character building values and students are recognized for practicing those values. For the month of November the value is "civility." Visit the counseling website to learn more about the value and what your child is learning.

The principals would love to meet you, share what is new at Mountain View, and answer any questions you might have. Our next Parents and Principals discussion will be held in the Community Learning Center on Tuesday, November 22 at 8:30. We hope to see you there.
